1. Election of Chair

Andrew Selous MP was proposed and seconded, and elected unopposed.

Mr Selous welcomed the parliamentarians present and thanked them for supporting the Group, saying he was looking forward to taking the Group forward as its Chair to look at the issue of obesity.

Ian Lucas MP said he agreed it was a critical issue which needed attention.

Mary Glendon MP passed on the good wishes of the Body Image APPG and said she would be pleased to work together with the Obesity APPG, which the group agreed would be positive.

Eleanor Smith MP said the work of the group was very timely, and that she looks forward to continuing to serve as a vice chair.

The meeting closed at 11.17.
